

TO JOIN THE EPA...

Who can be a member ? How to become a member ?

Individually:

As a member:

Members of Police Services in the different countries of the European continent, magistrates and any person with competence in the Criminal Investigation Department or in Administration.

Members of Security Services of the institutions of the European Union and NATO.

Retired persons from these Services.

How to become a member?

- By filling in and sending the membership form;
- By paying an annual subscription of 15 € (*)

Advantages:

- You will receive your member card;
- You will receive our quarterly news bulletin "EPA Newsletter" in printed form and/or digital format (pdf);
- You will be invited to activities organised by EPA and their partners;
- You will enjoy advantages granted to members only, namely during our activities;
- You will have an advisory capacity during General Assemblies;
- You will be allowed to take part in the association life and have a right to everything that is granted to their members
- It will be possible to you to become current member.

As a sympathizing member:

Persons who are not mentioned here above and who are interested in the European Police Association, as far as they are accepted by the Administrative Board.

How to become a sympathizing member?

- By filling in and sending the membership form;
- By paying an annual subscription of 15 € (*)

Advantages:

- You will receive your member card;
- You will receive our quarterly news bulletin "EPA Newsletter" in printed form and/or digital format (pdf);
- You will be invited to activities organised by EPA and their partners;
- You will enjoy advantages granted to members only, namely during our activities;
- You will have an advisory capacity during General Assemblies;
- You will be allowed to take part in the association life and have a right to everything that is granted to their members

Collectively:

Associations of members of Police Services in the different countries of the European continent, set up according to their countries legislation; a representative of each of these associations has the quality of current member.

Associations of members of Security Services of the Institutions of the European Union and NATO, set up according to their countries legislation; a representative of each of these associations has the quality of current member.

Associations of members of Police Services in the different countries outside the European continent, set up according to their countries legislation; a representative of each of these associations has the quality of member.

Official police services of the European continent. A representative of each of these services has the quality of current member.

Security Services of the Institutions of the European Union and NATO. A representative of each of these services has the quality of current member.

Police services outside the European continent. A representative of each of these services has the quality of member.

How to become a member?

- ➔ By filling in and sending the membership form;
- ➔ By paying an annual subscription of 60 € (*)

Advantages

- ➔ Your association/service will be considered as a member or as a current member, according to the case;
- ➔ You will be considered as "European Police" and are therefore allowed to use the EPA logo;
- ➔ You will receive your collective member card;
- ➔ You will receive our quarterly news bulletin "EPA Newsletter" in printed form and/or digital format (pdf);
- ➔ You will be allowed to distribute the EPA Newsletter to your members or to reproduce some articles in your own publication, while mentioning their origin;
- ➔ You will be invited to activities organised by EPA and their partners;
- ➔ You will enjoy advantages granted only to members, namely during our activities;
- ➔ Your representative will have an advisory capacity or voting rights during General Assemblies according to the case;
- ➔ You will be allowed to take part in the association life and have a right to everything that is granted to their members

(*) Members from countries outside the Euro zone will adapt their transfer so that their subscription effectively amounts to 15 or 60 € (according to the case) when it is received in Belgium.